

Tom Roper (MA President 2017-2018)

Tom taught mathematics in schools and colleges for 17 years, before joining the staff of the School of Education at the University of Leeds. He retired from full-time work at Christmas 2010 having spent the previous 4½ years as Head of the School. Throughout his career, Tom has given talks on mathematics and led workshops in schools and at masterclasses; he was the first Holgate Lecturer to be appointed by the LMS not to come from a university mathematics department.
