

G) AH Maths: A Teacher's View

Phil Moon

Putting the new AH qualification under the microscope.

Does it do what it says on the tin? Was the new qualification as it had been described previously? How have the syllabus changes impacted on teaching? What is proof by contrapositive?

These are among the questions that will be discussed. There will also be useful tips on how to prepare candidates for the exam and how best to use the marking instructions to inform teaching.